

Manchester Building Society Change to Board Membership

Manchester Building Society Group ("the Society") today announces a change to its Board of Directors.

John Allen, a Non-Executive Director, will step down from the Board on 31 December 2017 following 8 years of service.

David Harding, Chairman of the Society, said:

"I would like to thank John for his years of service to the Society and the strong contribution he has made to the Board during that time. I wish him all the best for the future"
